

Supporting Caregivers Through Training & Education

P.O. Box 322, Waupaca, WI 54981
Ph: 715-258-2448 • Fax: 715-258-9048
1-800-350-4422

www.impact-publications.com

Please note: Editorial calendars are tentative and subject to change. Suggestions for additional CE test topics are welcome anytime. Contact the editor at 715-258-2448, or email mikej@impact-publications.com.

2007 Editorial Calendar

January: Getting Ready for a Re-licensing Visit
February: The Role of Spirituality on Stress
March: Advocacy
April: Crisis Intervention
May: Bipolar
June: Falls
July: Dementia
August: Shingles
September: Residents' Rights
October: Traumatic Brain Injury
November: Epilepsy/Recognition & Treatment
December: Advanced Directives/Guardianship

2008 Editorial Calendar

January: Behavioral interventions
February: The aging process and health changes
March: Activity planning
*April: Mental health issues
May: Elder abuse
June: Communication issues
*July: Mental health issues
August: Privacy/confidentiality
September: Emergency preparedness
October: Infection control/safety
November: Medication management
December: Cultural sensitivity/diversity
**Specific mental health topics will vary.*

---

Here's What Your Peers Are Saying!

---

"The CE tests are very beneficial to employees and adult foster providers and spouses that can't always attend trainings."

— Dianne Patten
*Licensing worker,
Olmsted County Community Services*

"The topics address a variety of resident needs, from elderly to developmentally disabled, to the mentally impaired."

— Heather Knutsen
*Licensor,
Sherburne County Social Services*

"The feedback that we get from AFH sponsors is wonderful. They really enjoy the information."

— Jill Spielvogel
*Social service aide,
Sheboygan County Health and Human Services*

"AFCN is an excellent training resource. It's concise and focused newsletter format gives sufficient in-depth coverage for caregiver training without overwhelming with medical jargon."

— Connie McKenna
*Founding Director,
National Adult Family Care Organization*